

Always stay
clean.

Looking for talents like you.

Yes, exactly you.

Your future employer will not only realise a large-scale hydropower plant, but will also stand for sustainable energy production and a unique working environment.

Qualification

Technical university education, ideally civil engineering or cultural engineering/water management Independent handling of work orders or projects Experience with special software for hydraulic calculations